HISTORY

In 1873 a supplement was added to "An Act to Establish a System of Public Instruction" whose purpose was to "provide for the erection of school buildings and the establishment of the Graded School in the town of Long Branch."

In 1876, the first graduation was held at the Graded School. The first publication, the "Catalogue of the Long Branch High School," was issued in 1878.

The announcement in 1898 that it was "of the greatest importance for the steps to be taken looking towards a new high school building" brought about the decision to build a separate high school. The building was completed in 1899 and named after Dr. Thomas G. Chattle, "the father of the public school system in Long Branch."

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

At the turn of the century, Grace L. Imlay, Henry I. Milligan, Lulu V. Johnson, and May Belle Sexsmith, members of the first class to attend Chattle High School, graduated from Chattle High.

The first Chattle High School graduation, held at St. Luke's Methodist Church in 1903, featured the Women's Semi-Chorus chanting "The Violet's Fate" and Edna Van Nortwick's Valedictory address, "The Mythological Explanation of Nature."

Che-e-e-se!

Where's Mr. Siegmund?

Crowded conditions forced the construction of our present building in 1927. Its name was changed officially to Long Branch High School. The dedication ceremony on October 19 announced to the audience that the "Board of Education was turning over a modern building well-equipped for the education of the young people of the community."

In 1932, the first class graduated from Long Branch High School to the "Serenade and March of the Toys" played by a trio of students and "The Art of Angling" delivered by Clarence B. Cook.

With the addition of a new wing in 1956, the high school grew from a three-year institution into a four-year one. Overcrowding was solved by the introduction of split sessions in 1959, but the erection of two regional high schools reduced the size of the student body enough for the school to return to single session in 1962. Today, Long Branch High School continues to provide its students with the education necessary for today's complex world.

A teacher's work is never done.

Dedication

To our teachers —
past and present

A teacher not only communicates his knowledge but also plays a vital role in motivating his students. He guides them towards independent thinking and influences their view of life. Directing his students to take an active and constructive role in school life, the teacher prepares them for adult society. This is why we dedicate our yearbook to you, our teachers.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Members of the Class of 1964:

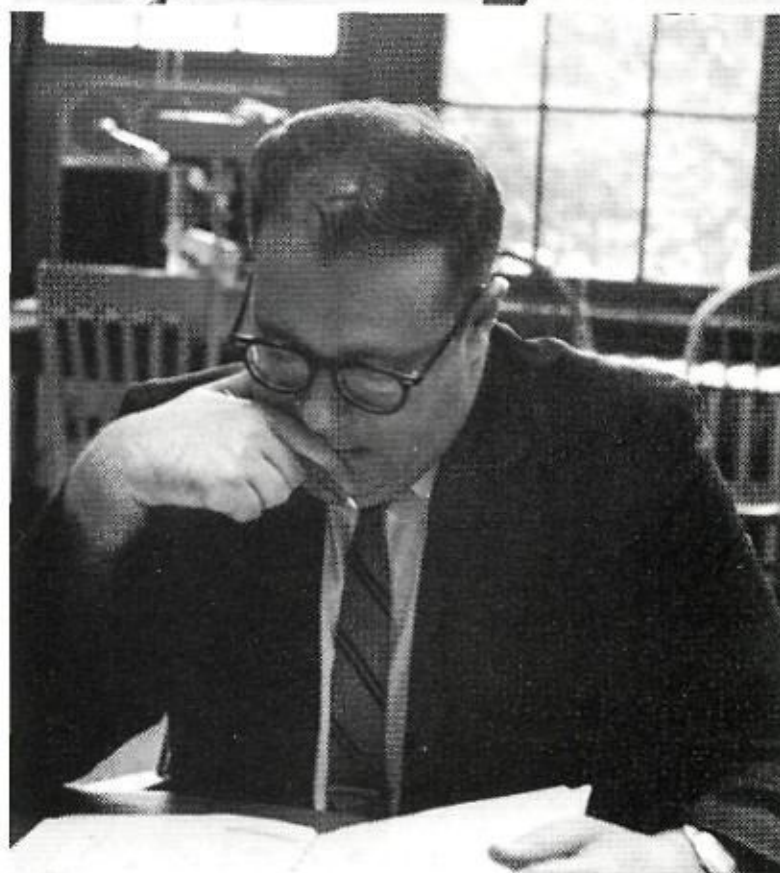

One of the basic functions of our high school is to inculcate within our students those positive ideals of our school, our community, and our country which will lead our young people into the paths of dedication to worthwhile activities of service to their fellowmen. Through a continuation of this heartfelt practice have we evolved our traditions.

In this the year of our state's tercentenary, we again reflect upon our truly rich heritage. How the generations of our faculty and students have labored to develop standards of achievement which shine forth to our community! How carefully our school has cultivated through the years that environment which cherishes the academic and yet nourishes the many facets which blend into the comprehensive high school! How the determined examples of your predecessors have illuminated the path with their records of distinction and renown!

Our progress leaps into the future, but the foundations have been firmly established in our long history. No school can offer a more rewarding history of fine traditions. Take due pride in this heritage and continue the example for all who follow after you. They, too, will join me in saluting each of you who has been named to receive the diploma of Long Branch High School.

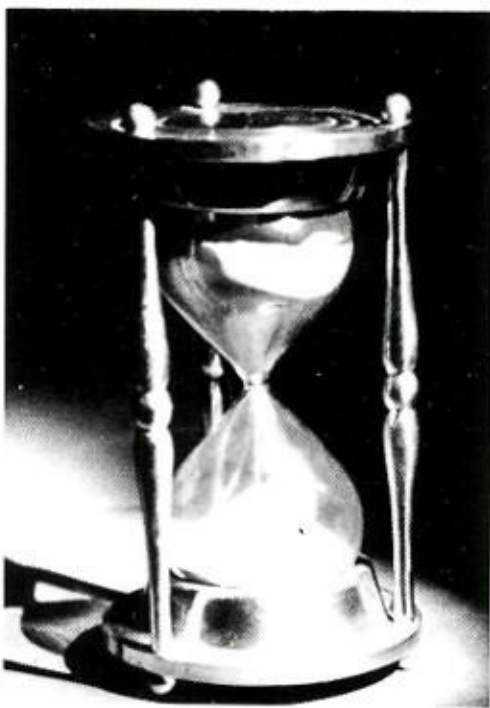

Sincerely,

Herbert A. Korey
Principal

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is made up of leading Long Branch citizens. In 1908 it hired the first high school principal. Up to that time, the Superintendent of Schools had also acted as superintendent of the high school. The Board of Education is responsible for making school rules, regulations, school improvements, and for hiring and paying school employees.

LIBRARY

Mrs. Mary L. Hardie,
Head Librarian

Miss Martha Bozeman, Librarian

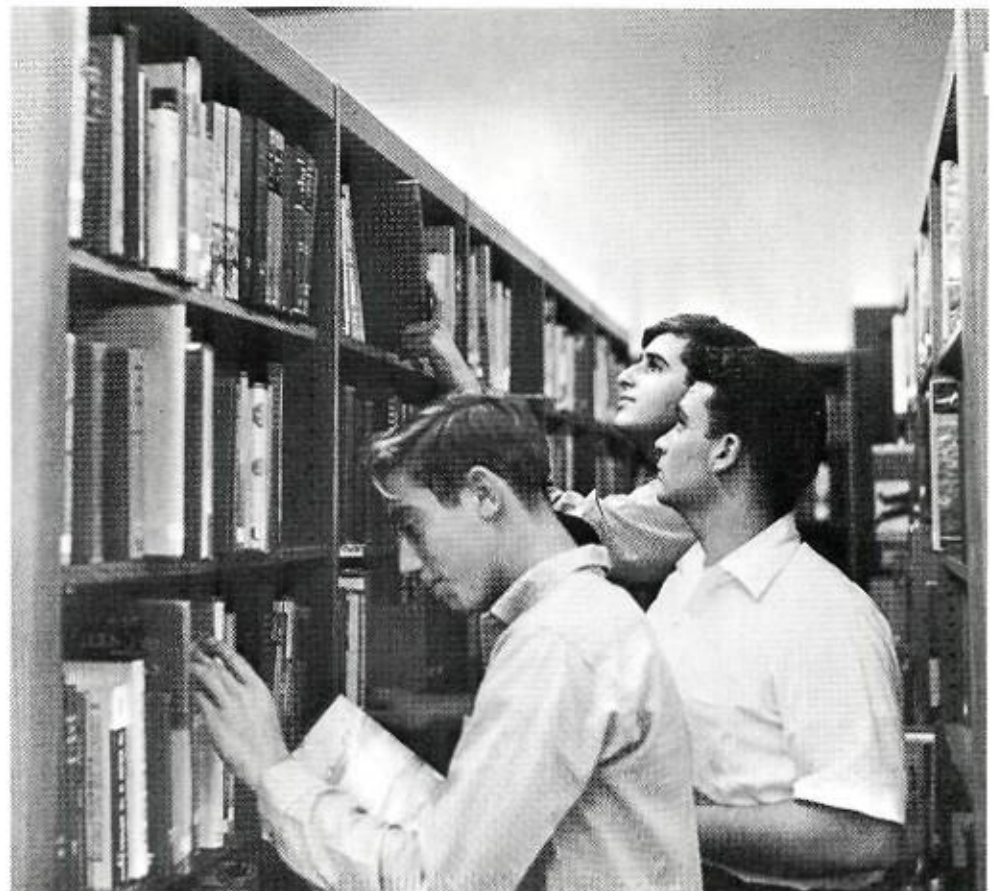

The library has had a struggle to reach its present position. It was started with a $120 fund obtained from "the proceeds of various entertainment given by the school."

Raising money to increase its facilities was not always easy. For example, a concert was given for the library's benefit in the 1890's. All but $30 was used to purchase electric lamps.

The desire and need for an adequate school library overcame these difficulties. Today, 10,800 volumes and three librarians serve the needs of the students.

GUIDANCE

E. Frank West
B.S., Trenton State College

Wayne M. Stevenson
B.Ed., Bucknell University

The Guidance department took root in a berry crate tucked away in the biology lab. As the seed grew, the department branched out to include the extensive files of occupational materials and college catalogues now used in the guidance office.

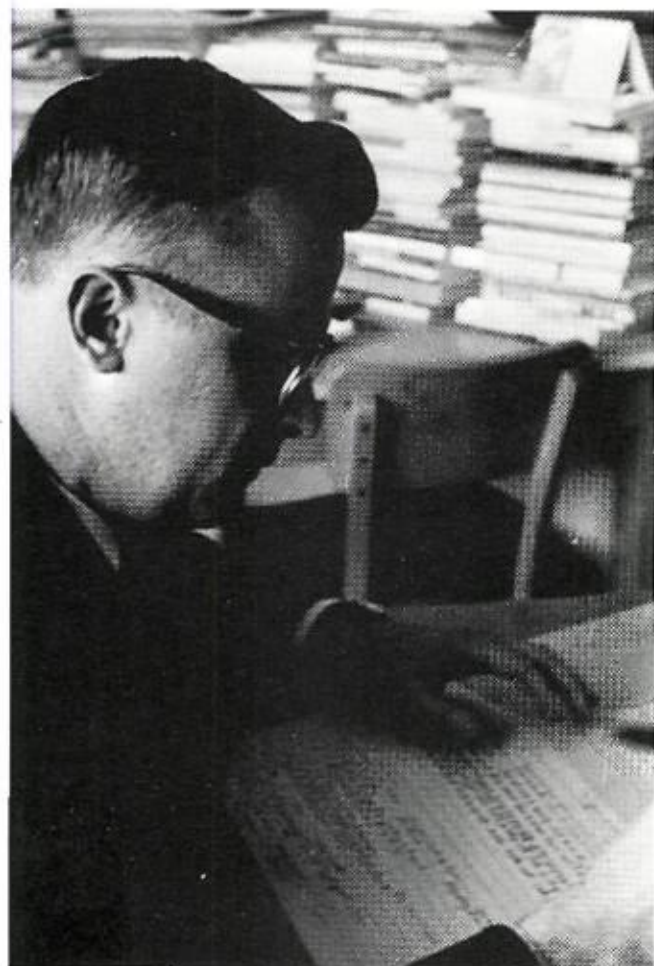

In 1951, Guidance became a separate department with Mrs. Gertrude Morresy as its head. Its purpose has remained the same: to help students make intelligent decisions in planning for their future.

Throughout the year, the Guidance department sponsors career and college conferences, which supplement the personal interview. These aid the college preparatory students in deciding on which college to attend and the general and business student in job placement.

ENGLISH

In Chattle High School in 1898, English was the largest department. It consisted of Miss Essie C. Todd, Preceptress and Instructor in English and Miss Olive M. Ewing, Instructor in English and Botany.

"The English Department has expanded to include six teachers," stated the program of the 1927 dedication of the high school.

Today, headed by Mrs. Ada Judson, the eleven English teachers instruct their students in effective written and oral communication and appreciation of literature.

Basic rules of grammar and a general reading background are features of ninth and tenth grade English. American Literature is studied in the junior year. A survey of World literature is conducted in the senior year.

SPEECH

A course in elocution was offered in 1899, but it was not until the 1960's that speech took its place as a major part of our school's curriculum.

Speech, under the direction of Mrs. Lotta June Merrill, helps students develop their poise and talent through work in poetry, humorous and dramatic interpretation, prepared oratory and extemporaneous speaking, as well as every day conversation.

The Speech Department also sponsors extracurricular activities, notably the Public Speaking and Debating Society, the Debate Workshop, and the annual Speech Arts Festival.

DRAMA

Beginning as a separate course in 1957, drama has provided its students with an introduction to the theatre arts. Mr. Raymond Arlo, the present drama instructor, supplements his regular class with an after-school workshop. Besides introducing his students to the Stanislavsky method of self-expression, he instructs them in other aspects of the theatre, such as history, appreciation, production and direction.

"The play's the thing," emotes Mr. Arlo.

JOURNALISM

Journalism has been a part of the curriculum for many years. Since 1957, it has been offered as an elective subject to junior and senior students who have been recommended by their English teacher. The history of journalism, techniques of newspaper writing, editorial policy and the economics of publishing, writing of reviews and criticisms, and interviewing techniques are included in the course.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Martha R. Taylor, Department Head

Phillip P. DeSantis

History was not introduced into the curriculum of Long Branch High School until 1903. At this time there was need for only one history teacher.

Today, the Social Studies department has nine teachers who conduct courses in Ancient History, Modern History, United States History I and United States History II. Last year, a new course was introduced: Survey of the Social Sciences. This course is being taught by a team of history teachers. An honors course, it covers such areas as psychology, sociology, economics, political science, philosophy and geography.

MATHEMATICS

Today, nine teachers are needed to cover the wide variety of fields taught by the mathematics department which, in 1899, boasted only one teacher.

The Mathematics Department, under Mr. Lawrence T. Hatton, offers 4 years of math for commercial and general students. The college preparatory student may take 5 years of math, including courses in solid geometry, trigonometry, and advanced mathematics.

SCIENCE

Robert J. Guziejka

Leslie H. Grove

In Chattle High School, science was an entire course of study separate from the Classical Course (a college preparatory program). Physiology, botany, zoology, chemistry, and physics were offered. Under its auspices, physics was "mandatory in the third year."

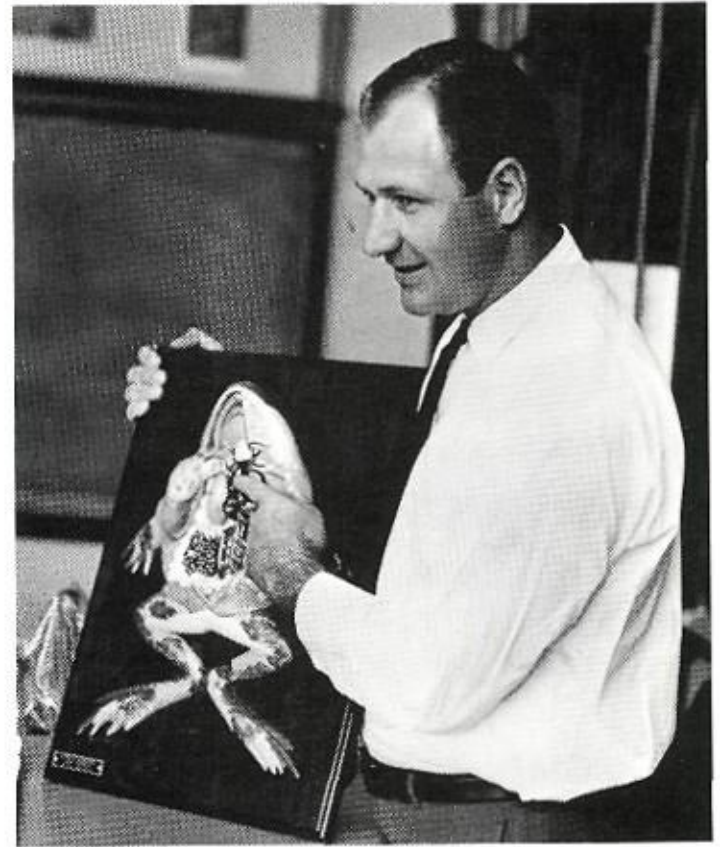

By 1927, with the opening of Long Branch High School, the science department had grown to three "instructors." The facilities included several "science suites" of laboratories and lecture rooms.

This year, the science program involves eight teachers who, headed by Mr. I. A. Zarik, present courses in biology, chemistry, physics, and earth science to college preparatory and general students. Honors courses are offered in biology, chemistry, and physics.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The first foreign languages offered in the Chattle High School of 1899 were Greek, Latin, and German. French was introduced into the department in 1903. It was not until many years later that the study of Spanish was offered.

Today, Long Branch High School offers five languages. Russian was added last year to previously established courses of Latin, German, French and Spanish.

Under the direction of Miss Florence Sheppard, the language department has many new methods of teaching. One of these is the modern language laboratory, which was installed in 1960. This enables the students to speak and listen to the language as they study its grammatic principles, vocabulary, and literature.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Jane E. Hall

Nicholas J. Morace

Our Business Department has grown since 1898 when Miss E. E. Riddell was the sole instructor of commercial courses. In 1900, C. Gregory, principal of Long Branch schools stated, "The commercial course is susceptible of great development and some years must pass before it will approximate its maximum usefulness."

Today, after sixty-five years of successful growth,

Florence G. Weintraub

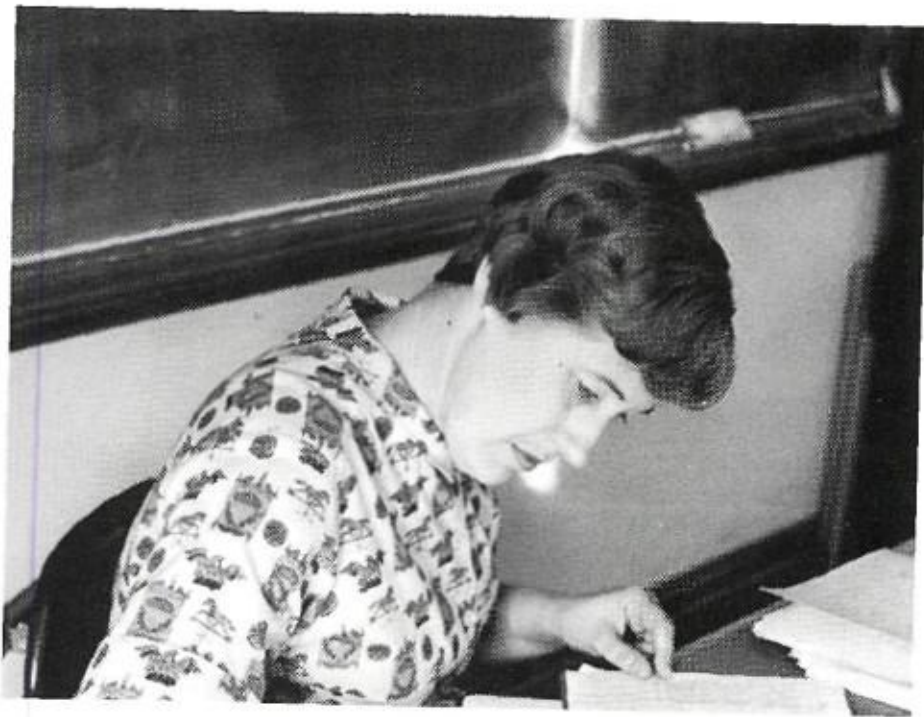

the Business Department includes six teachers and an extensive curriculum under the direction of Miss Jane E. Hall.

The curriculum, which is divided into secretarial, bookkeeping and clerical courses, prepares its students to meet the demands of the business world. Special courses in shorthand and personal typing are also offered to college bound students.

HOME

Bette Mayberry, Department Head
Margaret Aussicker

Home Economics was originally taught as Domestic Science and Domestic Art.

Today, under the direction of Mrs. Bette Mayberry, the aim of the department is to promote an intelligent attitude toward home life among its students.

Courses include four years of food and clothing. Family living is also offered in the senior year.

Both Foods and Clothing have preparation periods to show the student what he or she is expected to do. A laboratory follows in which the students make use of these learned skills. Family Living prepares students for marriage and its responsibilities.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Benedict G. Pascucci

At the turn of the century, Chattle High had no courses in industrial arts. The Board of Education felt that high school students received enough manual training in grammar school, from "reed and raffia work" in the first grade, through such other crafts as textile weaving, knife work, Indian basketry, and venetian iron work.

During the early 1900's, certain members of the Board of Education urged a continuance of industrial arts on a higher level. As a result, the new high school in 1927 included a "Woodworking Department" with one room and one teacher.

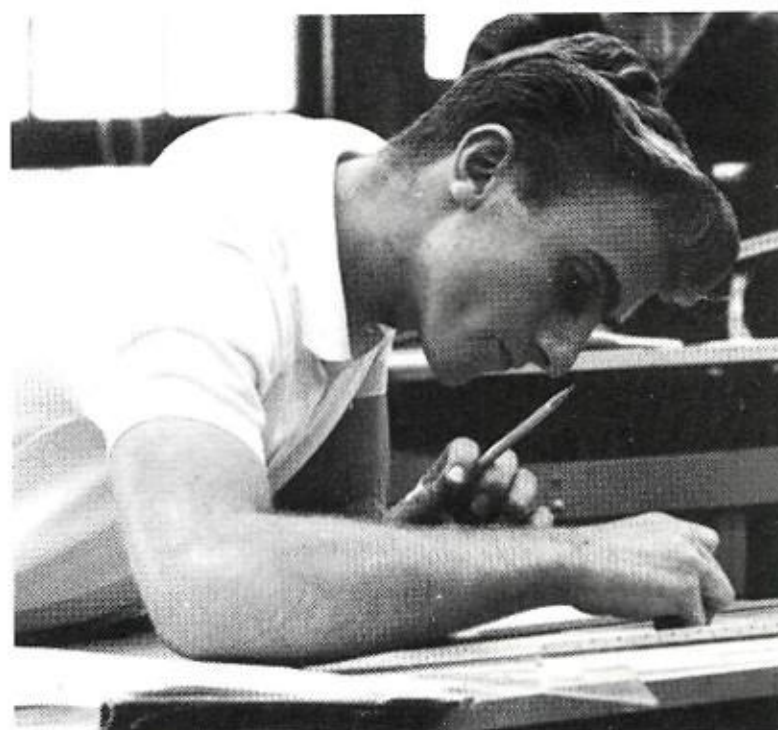

Today, the Industrial Arts Department includes not only wood shops, but also courses in metal work, mechanical drawing, and architectural and advanced drafting. It has been expanded to include five teachers.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Van Kaufman strains for a low note.

Dominic R. Soriano
Department Head

The Instrumental Music department gives students experience performing with various types of musical groups.

In 1899, the department consisted of one instructor, Miss Clara G. Griffin, who was also a German teacher.

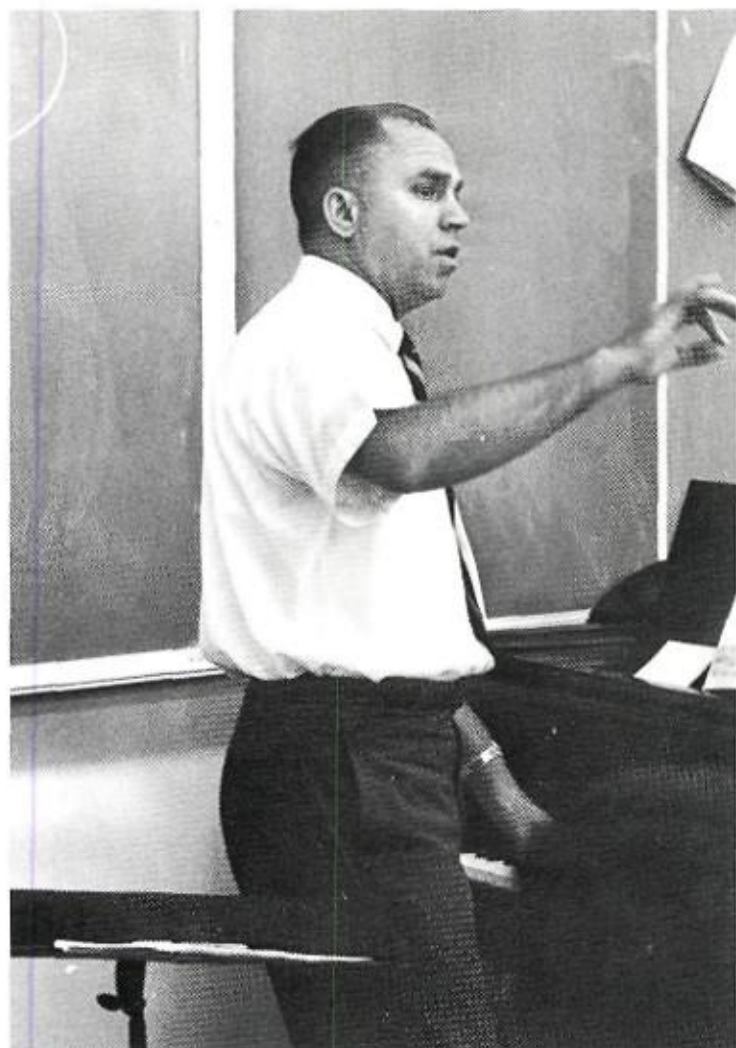

When the high school moved to its new site in 1927, there was one full-time instructor, Rudolph B. Winthrop. Mr. Winthrop also co-authored our Alma Mater with Miss B. Louise Bruske.

Under the direction of the present instructor, Dominic R. Soriano, the program includes marching band, concert band, show band, and dance band. The annual concert of the concert band is a high point of the musical year. Long Branch musicians are also well represented in All-State and All-Shore Conference bands.

And the music goes round and round . . . . .

Harold P. Oyan
Department Head

Although there was a "Music Supervisor" for the school system in 1898, choral music was not a specialized department. Part of the supervisor's duties was organizing a chorus which would perform at the annual graduation ceremony. One of the high points of the 1906 graduation was the chorus' rendition of "Water Nymphs" and "White Butterflies."

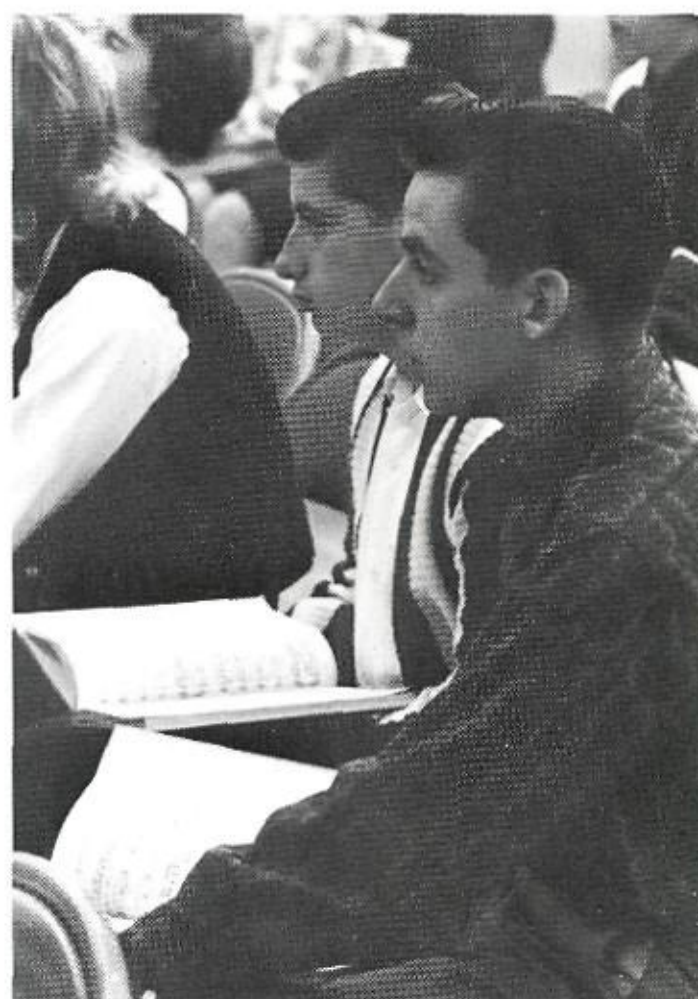

Today, directed by Mr. Harold Oyan, the Choral Music Department presents an annual Christmas and Spring Concert. During Christmas week, a Carol Caravan tours the city's schools and nursing homes.

The singers are divided into three groups, the Chorale, the All-Girls' Chorus, and the Varsity Singers. Besides learning musical expression, choral music students learn musical notation and music appreciation.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Carlton F. Siegmund

Charles Kline

"... One of the pressing needs of our high school is a gymnasium, where not a few, but all may take regular exercise. Our system will be one-sided unless the education of the body receives attention as well as that of the mind. Perhaps the day is not so far away when this need may be so impressed upon our community that it will be supplied. Those of us who see our girls and boys every day know how important the need is."

So read a portion of the superintendent's report of the academic year 1904-1905. Not until twenty-three years later, when the high school moved to its present site, was this need brought about and fulfilled.

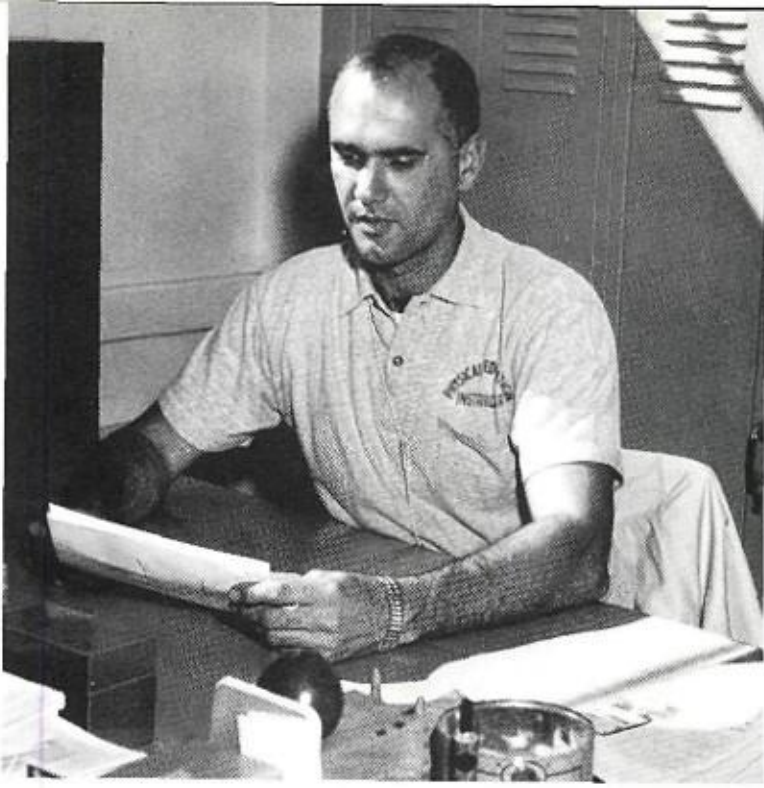

The high school now possesses many athletic facilities, encompassing all sports and fields of physical education. Everything is included, from golf to archery and gymnastics to that all-American sport of baseball.

Today, we have a comprehensive physical education program which stresses the importance of physical fitness in our daily lives.

FREEHAND DRAWING

The Freehand Drawing department began about 1920. From a single art course, the department has grown to include such phases of art as sculpture, lettering, water colors, sketching and perspective.

Every Halloween, the department utilizes its students' skills to make Halloween pictures for Long Branch store windows. Mr. Godoski, the department head, displays his students' work in the front hall throughout the school year.

Mr. Godoski points out proper use of color to C. Kirby.

MONMOUTH COUNTY VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Since its beginning in 1960, the Monmouth County Vocational High School has offered three courses at Long Branch High School. The students attending the vocational school take their remaining courses at Long Branch High School and upon graduation they receive two diplomas.

Courses include Electronics, Technical Drafting, and Practical Nursing.

Classes meet for three hours a day with part of this time spent in classroom instruction and the rest in laboratory or hospital experience.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach "Army" Ippolito with Capt. Z. Able; Co-capt., K. Short, and two outstanding backs, B. Tomaini, and R. Caldwell.

Long Branch High School has had a variety of football teams in its 65 year history. This year, Captain Zane Abel was a worthy successor to such fullbacks as our own "Chief" Beatty, Vern Woolley, "Bo Bo" Reeves, Frank Mazza, and Randy Phillips. Coach "Army" Ippolito surely remembers his days as End in 1935, the year our team beat arch-rival Asbury Park for the first time in twenty years.

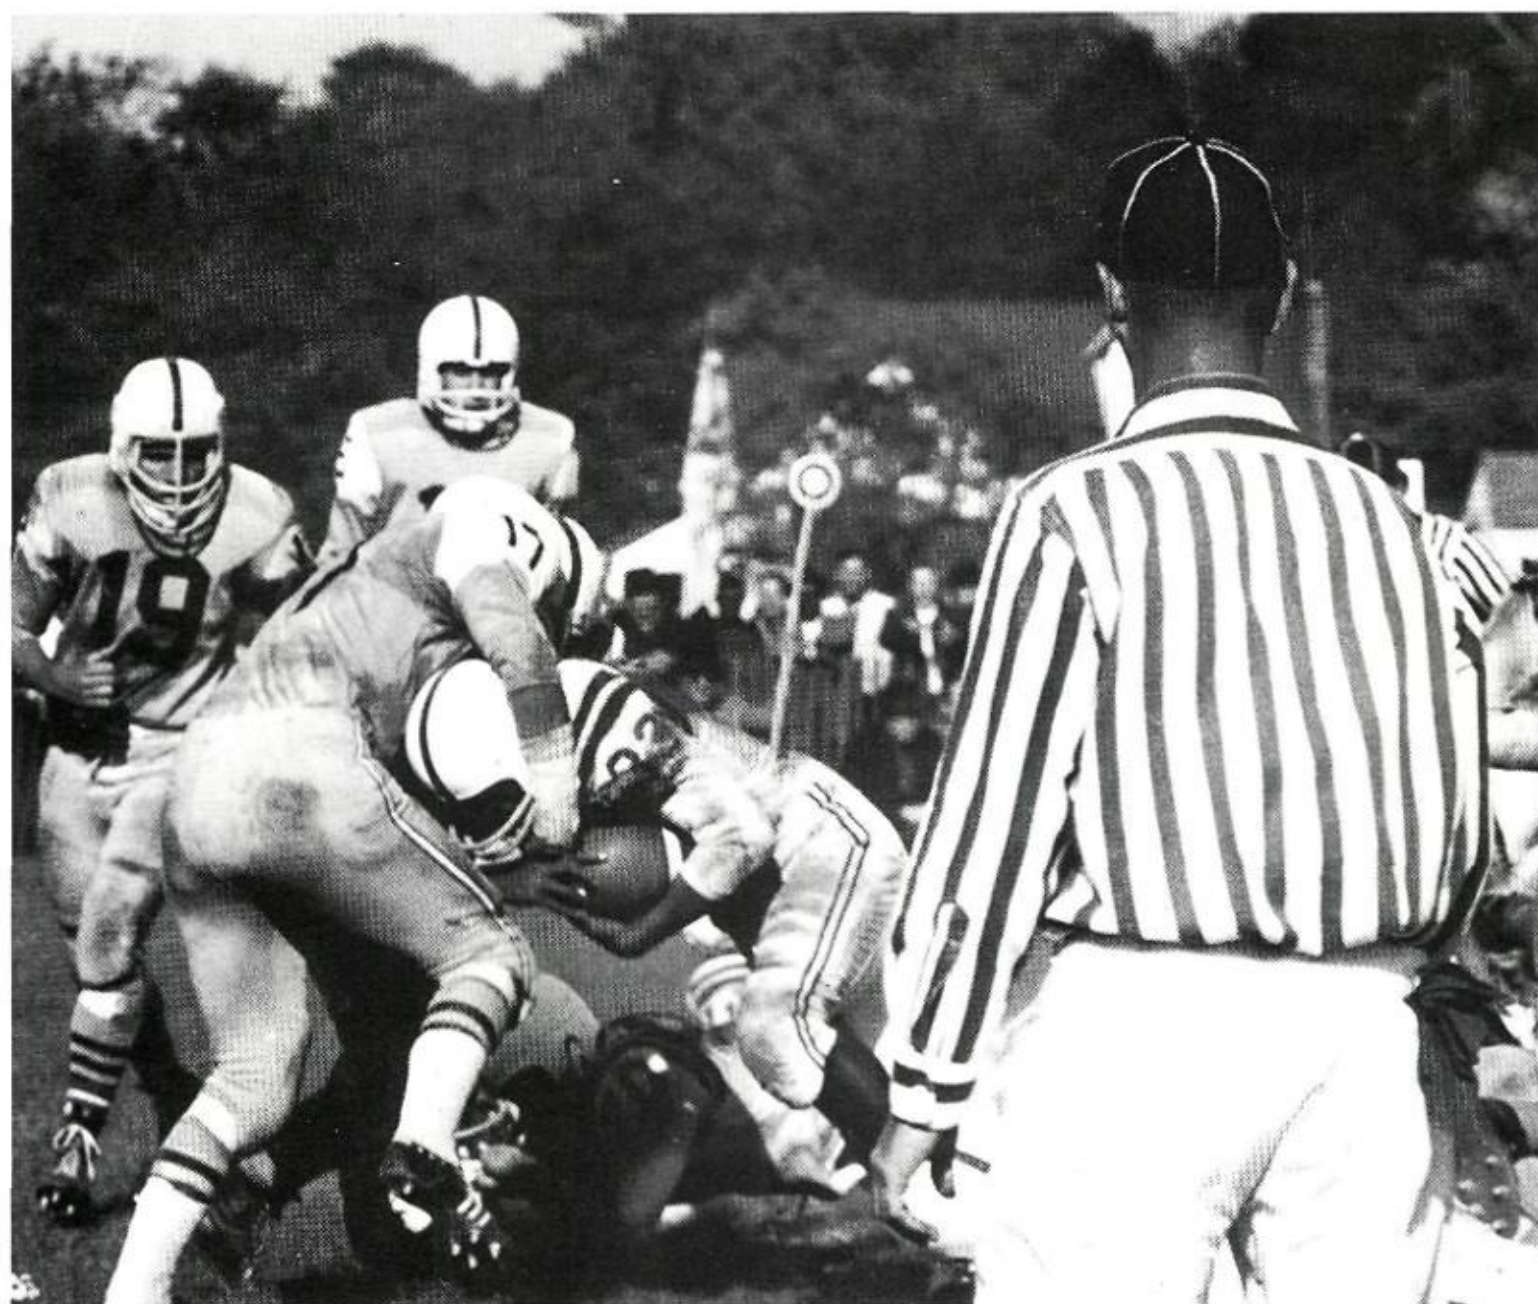

In 1929, Long Branch lost every game. In 1961, it won every game. In the "between years" our school won six Shore-Conference championships and five Central-Jersey titles.

Before Coach Ippolito took charge of the Branchers in 1945, they were led by such gridiron strategists as Ted Bresette, "Chief" Beatty and Buck Weaver, but "Army" was the first to win a championship.

This year the team won six games out of nine, including victories in the traditional games against Asbury Park and Red Bank. The Thanksgiving game marked the 19th consecutive year that Red Bank has failed to defeat us; and Asbury bowed to the Green Wave for the 3rd straight year. One of the highlights of the season was the Brick game. Although Brick had won 32 consecutive games, it was able to beat Long Branch by only five points.

Long Branch finished the season placing third in the Northern Division of the Shore Conference League.

CROSS COUNTRY

Long Branch's Cross Country team was first mentioned at the Dedication of the High School in 1927. The team reached its peak late in the 1950's with three consecutive Shore Conference Championships.

This year's Cross Country team consisted of only nine boys. The team's most successful day of the season was a triangular meet in which they finished second.

A foot injury prevented Sophomore Tom Bazley, last year's star, from running most of the season.

Coach "Red" Pierson considered Junior Ed Hartman as the team's top runner this season; he feels Ed "might prove to be one of the standout distance runners in the area."

"Next time don't run in front of me," says Lou Politan to John Schleg.

MARCHING BAND

Wind him up and he conducts the band.

Long Branch High School did not always have the large marching band it has today. In 1935, for example, the band had only thirty-five members; today's band has approximately eighty.

Under the direction of Mr. Dominic R. Soriano, the band practices during and after school for the football half-time shows. With the majorettes, color guards, and flag twirlers, the marching band adds spirit and song to such city parades as the Columbus Day and the Mardi Gras.

An innovation at half-time this year was combined shows with the Asbury Park and Red Bank Bands.

This year's soccer team, under Coach Frank West, won eleven, lost three, and tied two games. This earned the team first place in the Shore Conference Northern Division and a berth in the State Tournament. With seven returning lettermen, the team was built around a fast line, a solid defense, and an excellent goalie.

The season started with a victory in the annual Round Robin tournament. A tie with Monmouth Regional won the Northern Division Championship. In the Shore Conference Playoff, the Branchers played Neptune, the Southern winners. In a hard fought contest, our booters lost to Neptune, one to nothing. The team entered the state tournament and reached the quarter finals before it was finally defeated in a close game with Kearny, two to one.

Two records were tied and two broken. They include: most goals in a single season, 31; most wins in a single season, 11; tied shutouts in a single season, 6; tied most goals in a single game, 5. Bill Finger, goalie, tied Richard Sherman's record for most shutouts in one season with six. Felix DeSantis, broke the school record by scoring four goals against Brick Township.

MARDI GRAS

Halloween means "Mardi Gras" time to Long Branch High School. This annual event is sponsored by the Long Branch Exchange Club and the Long Branch High School Student Council. A colorful parade down Broadway starts this event which, after floats, costumes, and band contests, ends with an informal student dance at the Y.M.C.A. Queen Dee Dee Ronca and King Zane Abel presided over the festivities this year.

Rainy weather halts the parade but doesn't seem to dampen Judi Davis' spirits!

Long Branch High School and the Public Speaking and Debating Society sponsored its fourth annual Speech Arts Festival on December 2, 1963. Sixteen Monmouth County schools competed in six different events, including: extemporaneous speaking, dramatic interpretation, humorous interpretation, poetry interpretation, and prepared speeches. The Festival, designed to develop an interest and ability in forensics, was coordinated by Mrs. Lotta June Merrill. Trophies were awarded to first, second and third place winners in all six categories.

The following evening she and her court presided at the Homecoming Dance. The classes of '62, '63, and '64 were invited to the dance. The music was provided by the Apollos.

The Long Branch Basketball team, under the direction of Mr. Bob Walsack, finished the season strong, winning eight of the last eleven games. The season record was 12 wins and 8 losses and in Shore Conference play it finished fourth. The Wave cagers defeated every Shore Conference foe but Lakewood at least once.

The season started with Brancher victories over Neptune, Red Bank, and Freehold. Despite a midseason slump, the team finished with the wins over Middletown, Asbury Park, and Toms River.

The outstanding members of the team were seniors Kenny Short "Herky" Jones, Richie Caldwell, Chris Foltis, and Zane Able and juniors "Pudgy" Cooper and Ray Daniels.

"Herky" Jones led the team in total points scored with 317.

WRESTLING

Carl Larsen gets a few words of advice from Coaches Preston and Mohny.

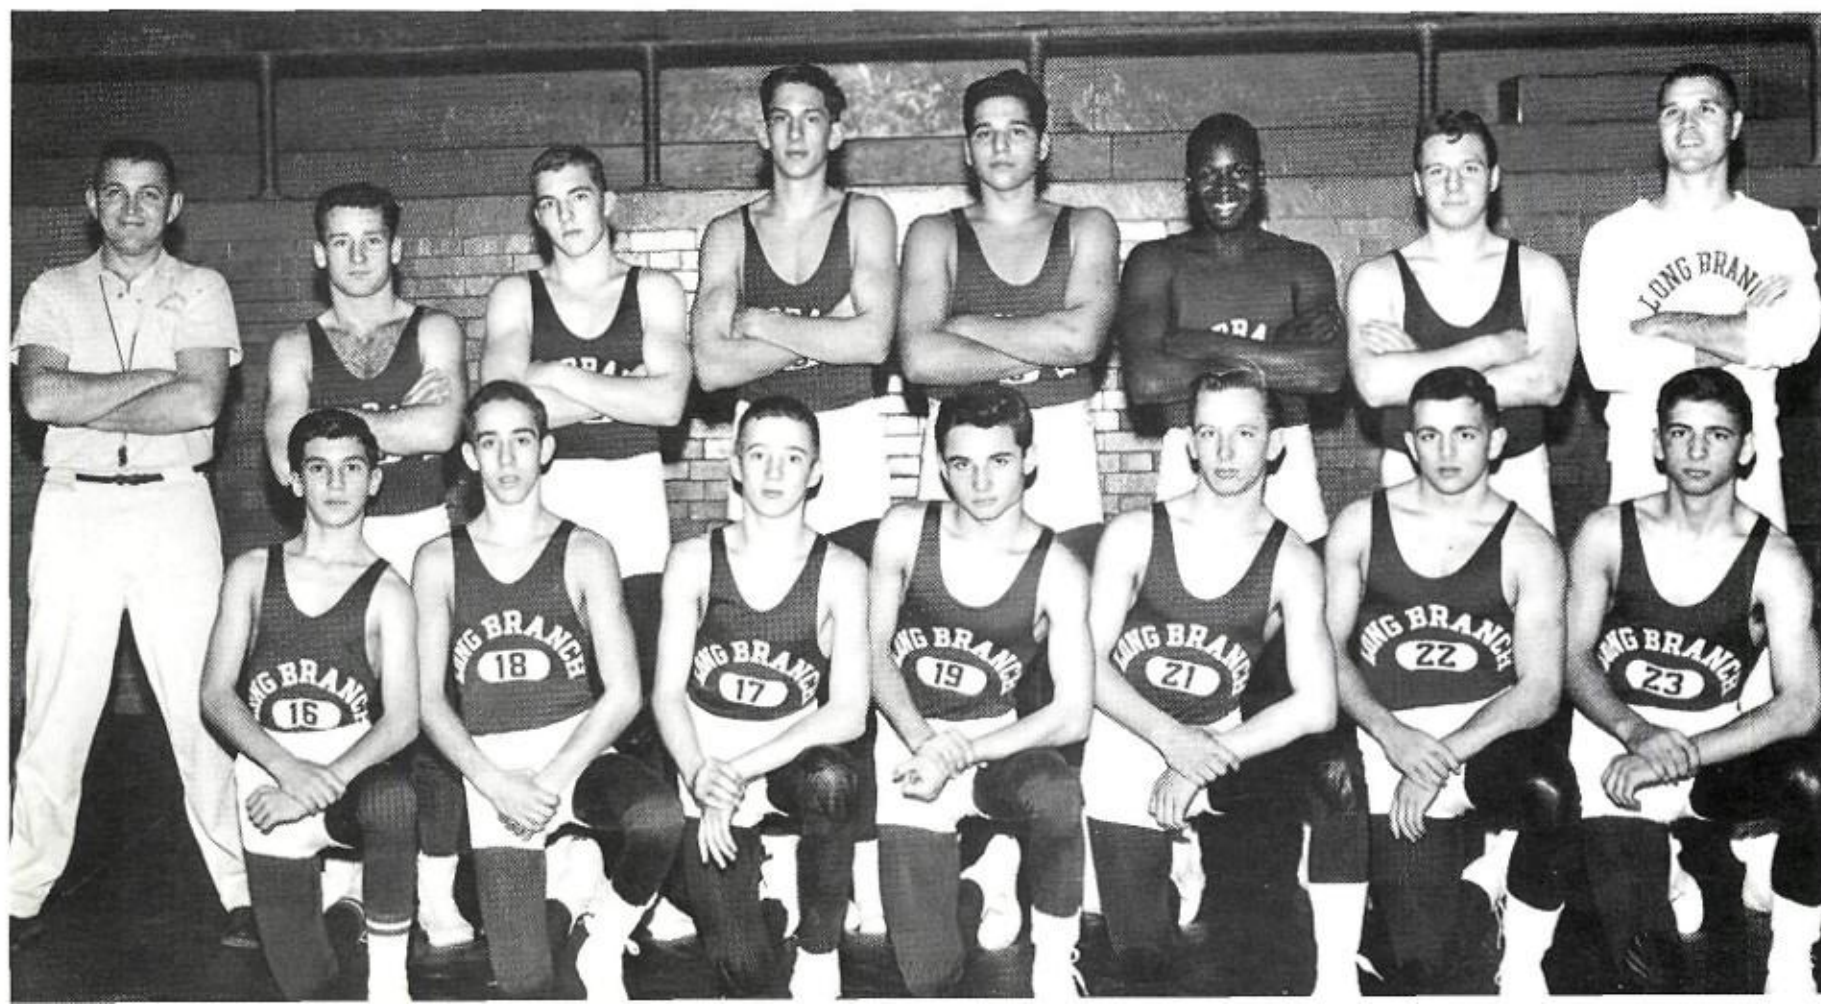

The wrestling team, coached by Mr. James Mohny and Mr. V. Miller Preston, finished this year's season with a record of six wins and five losses. The team started slowly but hard work paid off and the grapplers improved as the season progressed. The climax of the season was a third place finish in the District Tournament.

The consistently outstanding performer of the year was junior Fred Salter. Fred was undefeated in dual meets and finished second in the district tournament. Steve Grasso, a junior, also had a fine season. Steve had a record of seven wins and one loss. His outstanding performances were capturing the district championship in the 106 pound weight class and winning third place in the regional tournament. Juniors Neal Green and Con Gaskin had exceptionally good dual meet records. Both boys finished second in the district championships. John Tomaino and Dennis DelVecchio finished fourth in the district. Joe Tomaino, the lone senior on the varsity squad, also had a good year.

With all but one varsity letterman returning, next year's team looks promising.

J U N I O R S

As freshmen, advised by Mr. Edward Adams, the Juniors sold programs at football games and collected dues to raise money. By their sophomore year, they had raised enough money to hold the "Swingin' Safari," the Sophomore Carnival.

This year, under the direction of Mr. V. Miller Preston, the Juniors held their Junior Faculty Game, the "Hootenanny." The year was highlighted by the Junior Prom held late in May. These Juniors, like all the others before them, look forward to the end of the year when they officially become SENIORS!

"Oh come all ye faithful . . ."

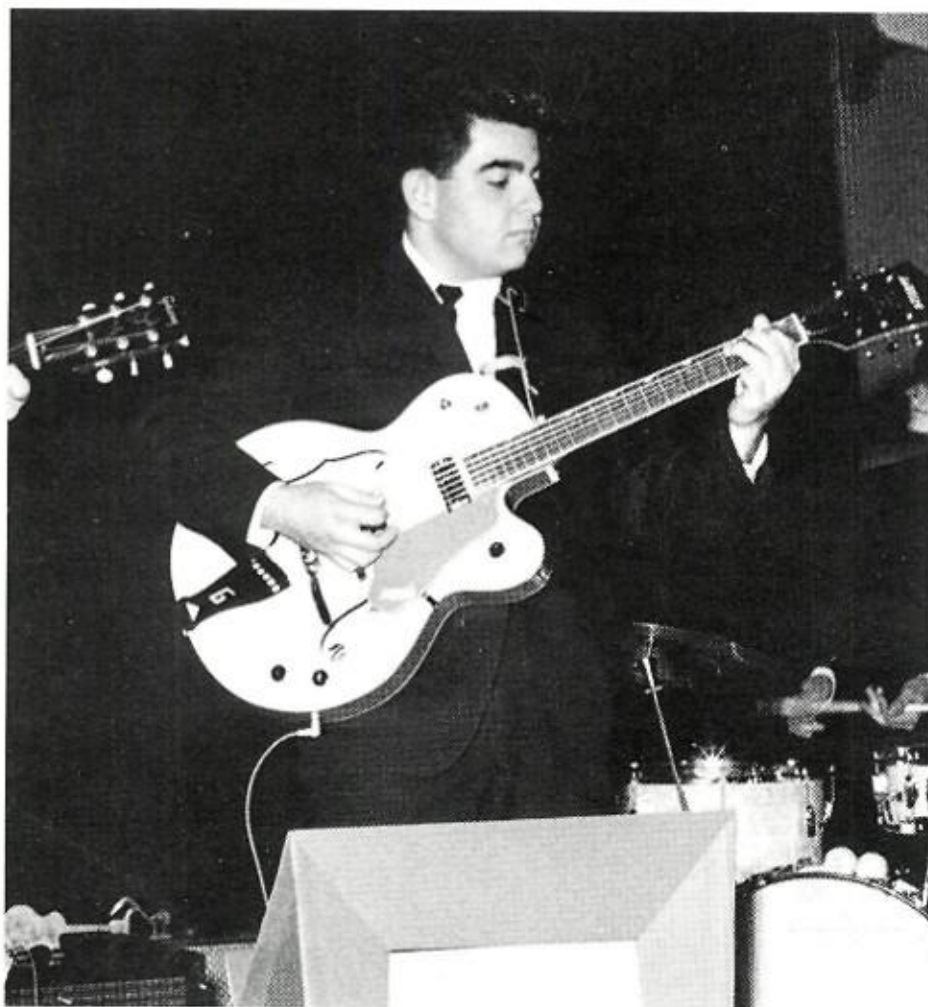

The Choral Music Christmas Concert was held this year in December. Mr. Harold Oyan directed the Girls' Choir, the Chorale, and the Varsity singers in a program of some unfamiliar Christmas carols as well as a few of the well-known ones.

The highlight of the concert was the traditional candlelight procession to the melody of "Greensleeves." Senior Virginia Harris gave a solo performance of the carol "What Child is This."

"Easy with that pin, please," pleads Rachel Grisi to Bonnie Baker, while Mary Cartier watches.

RECITAL HALL

Keith Allaire interprets Chopin.

Keith Allaire listens approvingly as Anthony Lucia and Jon Shutman warm up.

This year on February 9, 1964, the instrumental music department sponsored its second annual Recital Hall. Five outstanding musicians from local high school performed solos.

Earl Miller, a senior at Shore Regional High School began the concert with three organ selections.

Erick Hjembo, an accomplished pianist and a student at Shore Regional High, played two selections.

The third performer was Jonathan Shutman, first flutist with the Long Branch High School Symphonic Band, the All-Shore Conference Band, and the New Jersey All-State Band (Region II).

Next, Keith Allaire played three piano solos. A versatile musician, Keith is the tympanist for the Long Branch High School Symphonic Band and the All-Shore Conference Band.

Violinist Anthony Lucia, a junior at Long Branch High School, concluded the program with two solos. Anthony is a first violinist with the 1963 New Jersey All-State Orchestra, and member of the Monmouth and Lakewood Symphony Orchestras.

The 1964 track and field team competed for its second year under Coach Chuck Kline and Assistant Coach Bob Walsack.

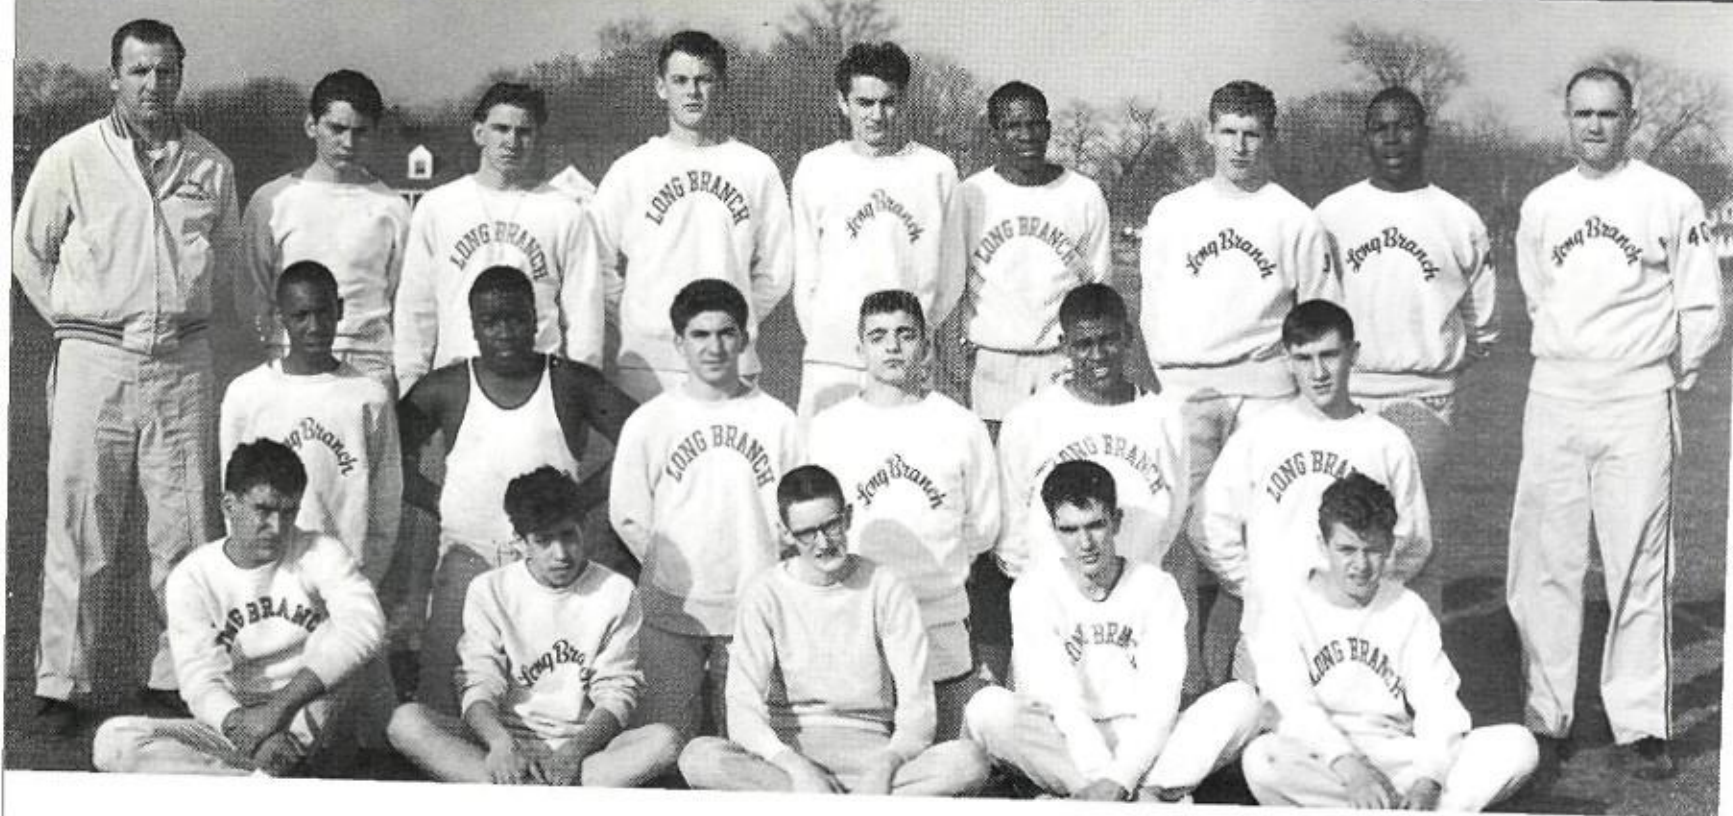

The team, led by co-captains Ken Short and Nick Cammarano, was one of the biggest in Long Branch history. Ken, a senior, defended his high-jump record (6'13/4") against all comers. Ken was also outstanding in the dashes and broad jump, with junior Felix DeSantis backing him up in the former and senior Jimmy O'Brien in the latter.

In long distance running, sophomore Tom Bazley was tough to beat. Seniors Melvin Jones and Neal Mayberry earned many points in the high and low hurdles respectively. In the weights, Nick Cammarano and Dick Primo were outstanding in the shot-put and discus. Senior Nick Delmore and junior Conrad Dilger spearheaded the attack in the javelin.

Dennis Gilbertson gets that strike.

BASEBALL '64

The 1964 Varsity Baseball Squad, one of the youngest teams in the history of our school, stressed and hustle to make up for the lack of overall experience. Under Coach "Red" Pierson and his assistant Hugh Mendez, this year's team had only a few starters from the 1963 campaign. The two Co-Captains, Bobby Tomaini and Bert Stronstorff, added their experience to the outfield.

Senior Toby Sklar anchored the infield, composed of junior sluggers Les Taylor and Angelo Strollo and Sophomore flash Joe "Bo" Bova.

Seniors Frank "Diddle" Onacilla and Ed Hennelly led the pitching staff, along with sophomore ace Steve Strollo. These boys were backed up by Jim Cofer, Jim Simonelli, Roger Wilbert, and Rich Wilder.

Junior Con Gaskin and sophomore Dan Dilley vied for the backstop position.

BAND CONCERT

A highlight of the school year is the annual Spring Concert performed by the Symphonic Band under the direction of Mr. Dominic R. Soriano. Held on a Friday evening in May, the concert offered a wide variety of musical selections.

The band played a medley of songs from the show "My Fair Lady," a Mexican Dance called "La Bamba de Vera Cruz," and a symphonic march called "The Sinfonians."

The Long Branch High School Symphonic Band.

The band, augmented by a dixieland combo, finishes the concert with a rousing encore.

Violinist Anthony Lucia gives another outstanding performance.

Mr. Soriano accepts a token of appreciation from the members of the band.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, founded in 1921, is a highly selective honor society. Candidates are chosen in their junior or senior year on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The William E. Cate Chapter, chartered in 1923, sets strict scholastic qualifications which prospective members must meet.

NATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

The National Thespian Society is the high school dramatics honor society. Members of the local chapter 1862 must earn fifteen points by participation in school drama events.

New Thespians are included at a banquet each spring; they receive a pen, membership card, and a subscription to "Dramatics."

International Quill & Scroll is the high school honorary journalism society. Active members of the "Trumpet," "Log," and Yearbook staffs, who stand in the upper third of their class, are eligible.

New Quill & Scroll members are included at a banquet in the spring, where they receive a key, membership card, and a subscription to Quill and Scroll Magazine.

QUILL AND SCROLL

NATIONAL ATHLETIC HONOR SOCIETY

The National Athletic Honor Society, founded in 1925, is an honorary organization. To qualify, a boy must have one varsity letter in a major sport or two in a minor one and stand in the top half of his class.

In addition, candidates are carefully screened by the faculty advisor. Those accepted are inducted at an Athletic Letters Assembly in the spring.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The National Forensic League, advised by Mrs. Lotta June Merrill, is an honorary organization for high school speech and debating. Membership is earned by the accumulation of at least 25 points through participation in forensics; higher honors may be earned by accumulating additional points. Since becoming affiliated with the National Forensic League in 1961, Long Branch has sent representatives to the student congresses and contests which the League sponsors.

Cast members cram for first rehearsal.

THE MOUSE THAT ROARED

"The Mouse That Roared," a two act satire, was performed by the 8:40 Players in the late spring. Directed by Mr. Raymond Arlo, it starred June Wilson and Hilary Schacter. Also included in the cast were John Anastasio, Stephen Irving, Ronald Flannery, Kenneth Feldman, Steve Gorelick, Arthur Harris, and Helaine Witkind. John Anastasia, Jeanne Dunn, Barbara Dilley, and Alice Giglio were stage managers.

Joanne Feniello prepares for her role.

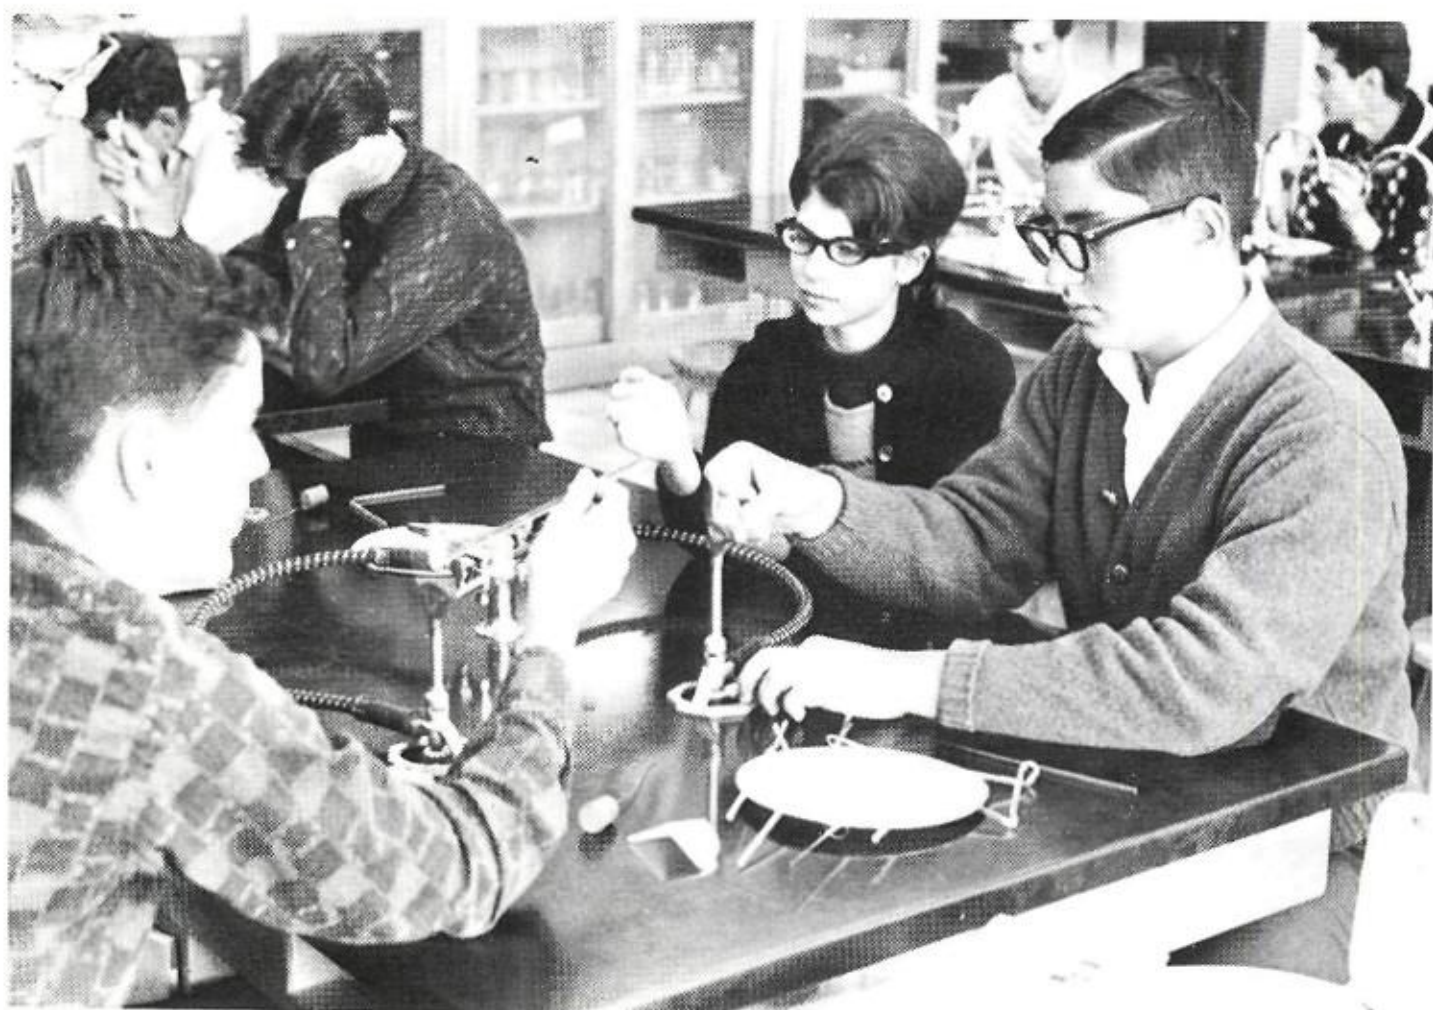

"Any more suggestions?" asks Sophomore President Anthony Greenwood as Secretary John Plancey writes them on the board.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class, advised by Mr. Charles H. Tyger, has had a busy year. In February it sponsored "Bongo Beat," a school wide dance. "Treasure Island," the Sophomore Carnival, was held in April. Since both of these events were profitable, the class looks forward to an enjoyable junior year.

Carol Roth and Allan Bernstein have a hot time in the chemistry lab.

Secretary

The first Yearbook, The Tide, appeared in 1941. After a series of names which included such titles as Now and Forever and Victory, the name Green Wave was officially chosen in 1950.

The Green Wave is primarily a history book; it tells the story of the school year. This year the book also tells the history of 65 years of LBHS. Under the direction of Mr. Frederic L. Link, the editors and staff learn the skills necessary to present, effectively and creatively, a memorable story of the school year.

BRUCE BADGELY
 FACULTY ADVISOR

Members of the business staff eagerly pour over the latest issue of the Trumpet.

TRUMPET

Published eleven times during the year, the Trumpet is the newspaper of Long Branch High School. It is produced and solely supported by the student body. The student editors and reporters are advised by Mr. Bruce Badgley; the business staff is advised by Mrs. Florence Weintraub.

Covering a wide spectrum of school activities, the Trumpet gives its readers an insight into the many facets of student life. Sports, features, and news sections are supplemented by regular columns and features. Editorials are also part of each issue.

The Trumpet is accredited by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the International Quill and Scroll.

It is through the Student Council, advised by Mr. Thomas Maggio, that our students help determine the policies and activities of our school while learning and practicing the principles of democracy. Officers and committee chairmen are selected from elected homeroom representatives.

Student Council, following its theme, "Pride, Spirit and Achievement," initiated such things this year as the first outdoor pep rally, the Student Activities Booklet, the Student Council Faculty Tea, a code of dress revision, and a modification of the stairway system.

The Council, through the Social Committee, also sponsors various dances throughout the year, including the semi-formal Homecoming, Christmas, and Valentine Dances. Its Football Refreshments Committee sold hot dogs, soda, and candy at the football games, while the Ways and Means Committee sold peanuts, shakers and confetti.

The Student Council also serves its school through the awarding of an annual $500 college scholarship for a deserving senior showing financial need.

A book fair is sponsored annually, in addition to the Student Council Bookstore. The Assemblies Committee holds its annual Fun Day, and a model Student Council meeting.

Council honors students through the Student-of-the-Month selection, written up monthly in the "Trumpet," and by pins awarded to the most valuable member of each active school club.

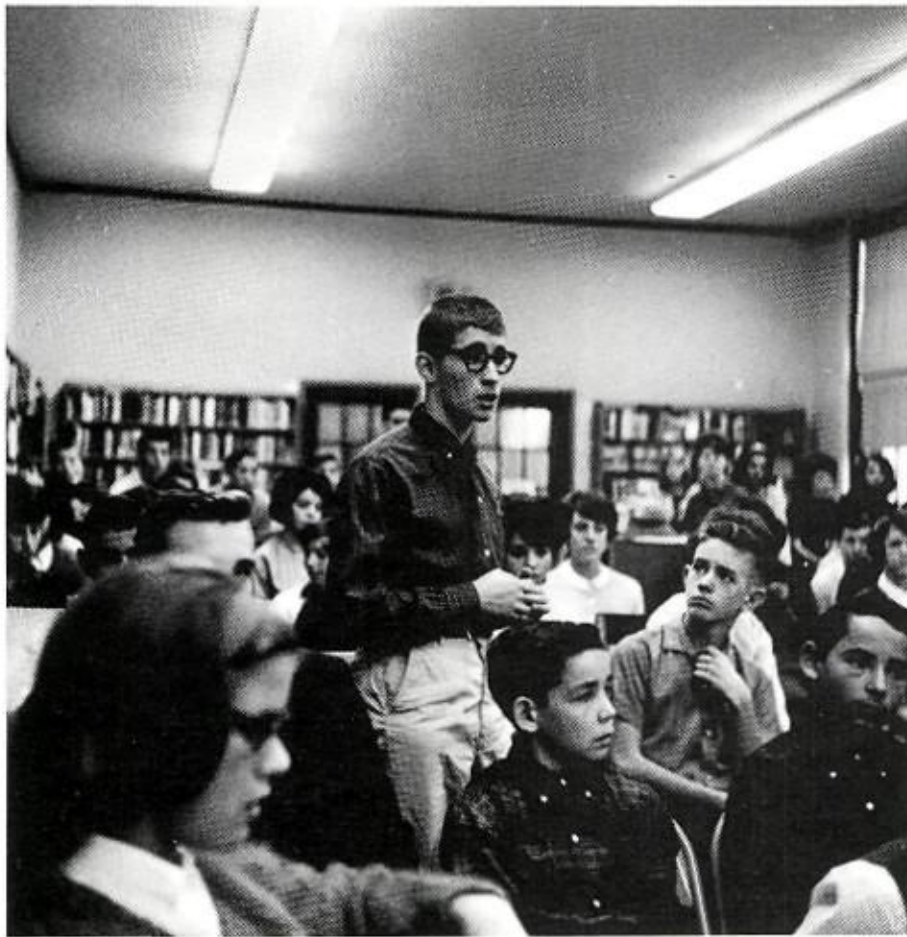

Student Council plays an important role throughout the school year, from Freshman Orientation in September to Commencement in June.

Sheila Lewis addresses the Council on a new fund raising project.

Representative Barry Unger brings a motion to the floor.

THE NOBILES

When in Rome, do as the Romans do.

The Latin Club, called the Nobiles, was established in 1957 under the direction of Mrs. Sylvia Colby. The Club encourages learning about Roman culture. Activities include plays, speakers, Latin games and films. The special events of the year are the Saturnalia Festival, a trip to the state Latin Clubs' Convention, and a Roman Banquet. The Nobiles are affiliated with the Junior Classical League.

EL CLUB ESPAÑOL

Joyce Zimmerman, treasurer, Honey Wolff, Vice President, Arline Gold, corresponding secretary, and Judy Balton, recording secretary, discuss plans for the annual Pan American Day program.

In 1945, "El Club Español" was formed under the guidance of Mr. Amadeo Ippolito. Since 1957, Mr. William Harvey has served as joint advisor. The club acquaints its members with the customs, food, and language of the Spanish speaking peoples. Its many activities include Spanish games, films, speakers, and a yearly trip. Its most important activity is the presentation of the Pan American Day Program, which is performed for a school assembly.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS

The French Club began in 1943. Presently it is under the supervision of Miss Florence Sheppard and Mr. Louis Toscano. This club, open to all second, third, and fourth year French students, furthers their knowledge of French culture and civilization. Yearly activities include a trip to New York and a Christmas party with the other language clubs where the members of Le Cercle Français present a skit and songs.

French Club members discuss future travel plans.

PHYSICS CLUB

Started in 1956, the initial purpose of the Physics Club was to give its members a "fundamental knowledge of scientific apparatus." Today, under the direction of Mr. I. A. Zarik, the club stresses better understanding of the principles of physics. The members learn how these principles apply in industry and research through guest speakers, trips, and films.

CUBE ROOTS

The purpose of the Math Club, organized in 1961, is to stimulate its members' interests in the various areas of mathematics. Its name was changed to Cube Roots Mathematics Club in 1962. Under the direction of Mr. Ferdinand Hagel, the club sponsors lectures and trips which give its members an opportunity to learn those aspects of math not taught in the classroom.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Advised by Mr. Robert Irvine, the Biology Club provides interested science students with an opportunity to explore and study biology and its related fields outside of the classroom. Since it started, the club has added greatly to the scientific awareness of its members through field trips, guest lecturers, project workshops, and a club project of labelling the trees on the High School campus with their scientific names.

FUTURE DOCTORS OF AMERICA

The Future Doctors of America, adds to its members' knowledge of medical science through guest lecturers and field trips to biomedical labs and hospitals. Under the direction of Mr. William S. Mahalik, members are encouraged to work on individual projects and discuss them at meetings. The highlight of the year's activities is the dinner held for the installation of officers.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America Club was organized in 1955. This club, advised by Mr. Joseph Skok, serves as an information center for students interested in the teaching profession. Guest speakers and trips to various colleges are an important part of the club's activities. The FTA also provides practical experience for its members by sponsoring visitation days when all students interested in teaching visit classrooms and observe a typical school day.

"And a student teacher will speak in May . . ." reports F.T.A. president Cathy Todaro.

CLIO SOCIETY

Established in 1960 as the "Social Studies Club," this organization officially changed its name to Clio Society the following year. Weekly meetings are held at which members hear lectures and view films. The Clio Society was active in the New Jersey Tercentenary Exhibition held in April. Jointly advised by Mr. Bernard Doyle and Mr. J. Leroy Juckett, the club will be a member of the Historical Society of Monmouth County. A trip to Freehold and various county historical spots highlighted the year's activities.

Advised by Mrs. Mary Hardie, the Library Council, organized in 1946, gives its members practical experience in library procedure while aiding the school librarians. Members assist in checking out books and keeping the book shelves in good order. They also keep a scrapbook of school news that appears in the local newspapers and help the Student Council Bookstore with its Book Fair in November.

SERVICE UNIT

Established in 1960 as a "Voluntary Service Unit," the Service Club is dedicated to service to the school. Today, under the direction of Mr. Frank Sorrentino, its activities include collecting daily attendance cards, inspecting the school building during fire drills, taking charge of seating and discipline during assemblies, and decorating for dances and other school events.

Jack Wright and Frank DeSantis give Mrs. Holden morning attendance cards.

PEN AND STENCIL

The Pen and Stencil Club was established in 1959 both to help commercial students acquire additional business skills and knowledge, and to create a fellowship among students of business subjects. The Club includes a Service Corps which types, duplicates and does other clerical work for faculty members. Trips and lectures are also sponsored to study vocational opportunities.

In its third year, the Chess Team, under the direction of Mr. Paul Teaman and captains Bill Finger and Barton Halpern, is the defending champion of the Shore High School Chess League. The five highest rated players in the Chess Club compete with teams from other schools in the interscholastic meets. Each year the champion receives the League trophy.

BOOKMAN'S CLUB

The Bookman's Club was organized in 1963 under the supervision of Miss Rosemary Miller. Members distribute English Department textbooks and maintain a book inventory.

Members of the Bookman's Club are C. Viola, J. Bova, R. Tomaini, R. White, R. Rozey, and H. Eng.

VARSIITY CLUB

Membership in the Varsity Club is open to any student who earns a letter in an inter-scholastic sport and maintains a C average in his school work. The club, which started in 1953, encourages school spirit and support for our athletic teams. Advised by Mr. Carlton Siegmund, the members are honored each year at a Green and White Association Dinner.

CIVIL DEFENSE

Organized in 1962 by Mr. Charles P. Kroposky, this club's aim is to promote student interest in civil defense activities. Its program of activities includes regular meetings and trips to instruct the students in civil defense procedures. Members are eligible to become junior members of the city civil defense organization.

FIRST ROW, Left to Right; Mr. C. Kroposky, adv.; E. Jackson; P. Abel; K. Staggs; E. Coffey; A. Mazie. SECOND ROW: F. Henry; J. Blum; L. Thornton; L. Wall; B. Unger; E. Solomon. THIRD ROW: D. Mazza; C. DeSantis; V. Yepello; B. Fister; D. Sherman.

Mr. Kroposky instructs his "C.D. crew" on the uses of new equipment.

RED CROSS

Reorganized in 1959, the purpose of the Red Cross Club is "to achieve health of mind and body and better human relations through community service." Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth E. Smith, the club sponsors a Christmas Party at the Maple Rest Home. Other activities include visiting the Bloodmobile at Fort Monmouth and attending County Red Cross meetings.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Club, organized this year by Miss Carol Comstock, was formed to give students practical experience in the homemaking fields. Membership is also open to students not in home economics classes. Meetings are held twice a month and feature demonstrations in cooking and sewing and speakers in such topics as career in Homemaking and good grooming. The club's major activity is preparing for the faculty tea at Christmas.

CATERING CLUB

Established in 1963, the Catering Club teaches interested students the art of catering. Under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Aussicker, the members learn to prepare and serve refreshments. The club functions at such events as faculty teas and the Speech Art Festival.

The Offset Printing Club, organized in 1963, teaches its members the techniques of offset printing. Directed by Mr. Benedict J. Pascucci, this organization aids the school by printing programs for the Speech Arts Festival and the choral and instrumental music concerts, dance tickets, and scripts for the drama classes. Members are able to engrave their own greeting cards.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club has been a part of Long Branch High School since 1932. Its purpose is to help its members secure their radio operator's licenses and maintain the club station W2NOZ. Under the direction of Mr. Leslie Grove, club members have contacted other "ham" operators as far away as California, England, and Continental Europe.

Radio Club members try to contact fellow "hams."

Organized in 1961, by Mr. William Levin, the Audio-Visual Aids Club teaches its members the use and maintenance of such audio visual aids as slide projectors, tape recorders, and motion picture projectors. The club performs a valuable service to the school by distributing and operating these audio visual materials. The A.V.A. club annually sponsors a movie for the school. This year's offering was "The Mouse that Roared."

SOUND AND LIGHTING

The Sound and Lighting Club was organized in 1956 as the Lighting Club with Mr. I. A. Zarik as faculty advisor. Today its purpose is to help its members learn the uses of sound and lighting equipment and techniques in stage production. Directed by Mr. Lawrence Neyhart, this organization is in charge of the sound and lighting facilities for school plays, concerts, and assemblies.

FIRST ROW, Left to Right; J. Anastasia; Sec.; I. Miller; R. Herberg; S. Green; treas. SECOND ROW: M. Gordon; F. DeSantis, Sgt. at Arms; J. Palumbo; R. Magee. THIRD ROW: N. Delmore; G. ## DANCE BAND

The dance band is an extra-curricular activity sponsored by the music department under the direction of Mr. Dominic Soriano. It rehearses once a week in preparation for assemblies, school shows, and dances. Organized in 1959 as an extra activity for the more advanced musician, it plays both popular music and jazz. Several students, after playing with the dance band, widen their experience by forming their own combos. The band specializes in the music of the big bands of the forties, while also playing the later arrangements, such as the twist and bossa nova.

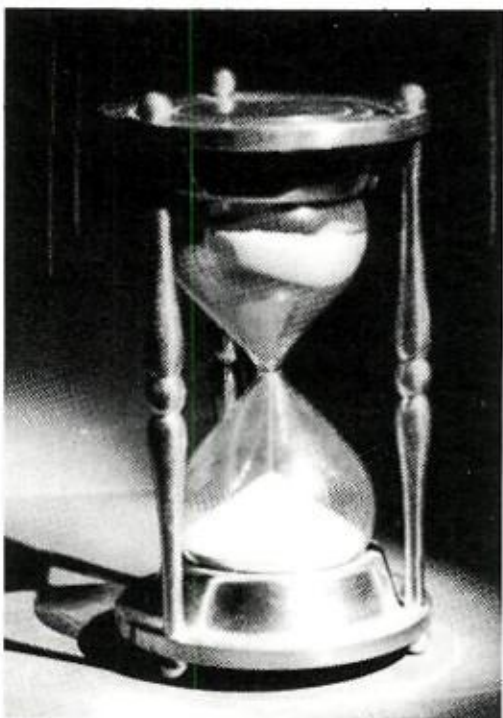

Violinists R. Szabo, S. Jacobs, F. Ravielle, A. Weinstock, and A. Lucia, participate in many musical programs.

SENIORS

September 1960 marked our entrance into Long Branch High School as freshmen. Because we were on the late shift of the double session, we were privileged to come to school from 12:30 to 4:55 P.M. Under the direction of Mr. Albert Bollmeyer, our advisor, we organized our class, elected officers, collected dues, and never got our dance on the floor.

Next year, as sophomores, we returned again on the late shift, prepared to flaunt our authority over the "sniveling freshmen." However, when we discovered that all the room numbers had been changed, we had to ask those same previously oriented freshmen for directions! Swallowing our humiliation, we highlighted this year with our Sophomore Carnival and "The Last Aloha," our sophomore dance.

In our Junior year, all hopes of getting out of school at 12:05 were dashed with the announcement of a return to single session. Our school day now ran from 8:00 A.M. to 3:02 P.M. Still grumbling about getting out of school at "3:02" and under the direction of our new advisor, Mr. Rollo E. Galbraith, our class sponsored "Riot in Gym III," our Junior Faculty Game, and "Island of the Rainbow," our Junior Prom.

Then the big day arrived and we became Seniors! Ready to proclaim our "Senior Rights" we were brought down to earth with the discovery that we had none! Aurora Rini, our class president, called our Senior executive board into action. The results were a Senior Bulletin Board, A Senior Assembly, and a Senior Day.

Then we found a new problem: a shortage of money. With the help of fund raising affairs sponsored by the Parents Advisory Board, we raised the necessary amount to pay for our Senior Prom. The Prom and Graduation Day marked the end of our high school career.

Graduation Day is also a beginning for us. The four years we've spent together will never be repeated, but they will be a never-forgotten memory. We are beginning a new part of our lives; some of us will continue our education; others will work or get married. Yet, with the education we have received at Long Branch High School, we enter the adult world prepared to be mature and responsible citizens.

In memory
of
Linda Vaccarelli

Special thanks from the Yearbook staff to:
Mrs. Dorothy Howland, for providing us with pictures and historical information.
Mr. William "Chief" Beatty, for the many pictures of former athletic teams.
Mr. John Wilson, for loaning us his hour glass to photograph.

Mr. Anthony Freda for the use of his photography equipment:

and

A welcome to our new Board of Education member, Mr.
David Means.

VICTOR J. YEPELLO
"Vic"

Here,
We have been given the tools;
Now, it is up to us to use them.

His life was an example of courage, dedication, and idealism, not only to young America, but to all his nation and the world.

"Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country."
